

Justin & Taylor

Dear Birth Parents,

Our names are Justin and Taylor, and we are so excited to share our story with you! We believe that we can provide a stable and loving home, which every child deserves. You'll see that we have a lot of love to give and we hope that this profile shows who we are: a couple ready to take on the challenges and joys of parenthood. We would be absolutely thrilled if we could start this journey together.

When we first met, we fell in love with the other's ability to make us laugh and smile and it is our goal to keep that pattern going with whoever we meet. We were married after two years of dating and immediately began working together to serve underprivileged kids in the city.

We don't work quite as closely now but the joy of being together has not slowed down. Now, we are looking to expand our family to continue spreading joy and providing unconditional love through the miracle of adoption.

Our Promise: As prospective parents, we are dedicated to providing a loving and supportive environment where a child can grow and thrive. Our home is filled with laughter, kindness, and opportunities for exploration and learning.

Why Adoption: We have always dreamed of becoming parents and believe that adoption is a beautiful way to build our family. We are excited to open our hearts to a child, offering them unconditional love, stability, and a lifetime of opportunities.

Our Hopes: We envision a future filled with cherished moments – from family walks with our dogs in the park to cozy evenings reading bedtime stories together. We are eager to embrace the journey of parenthood and create a home where every child feels cherished and encouraged to reach their full potential.
