

We are Bill and Alison

Hello!

We are thankful to you for taking time to get to know us a little bit. We are so excited for the opportunity to adopt a child and grow our family! We hope this profile gives you a good idea of who we are and what we value.

What Bill thinks of Alison

From the moment I met Alison, I was struck by her kindness and generosity. Her values are so good and her heart is so pure, I fell in love with her right away. I also fell in love with her family, and felt so accepted and loved by them. Alison loves me for who I am, and is so accepting and kind to others. She is the smartest person I know, and great at games, yet not boastful. Babies and dogs love her, and we all know they are the best judges of character! Alison completes me, in every way. She wants to be a mother as much as I want to be a father. We have a great foundation, and a lot of love to give as future parents.

About Us

We met in 2005 when Bill's band was looking for a singer and Alison replied to the ad. We've been together ever since and music remains a big part of our lives. We got married in 2010. Bill works as an elementary school teacher and Alison is a professional photographer. We have a sweet dog named, Millie. We have been eager to become parents for many years and would be overjoyed to be chosen as adoptive parents.

What Alison thinks about Bill

Bill is a wonderful husband and truly my best friend. He is a very kind and open hearted man. He shares his emotions and is good at communicating. He is so funny and silly, he makes me laugh every day and I know our future child will love having him for a father. He is also very determined and is a great example of someone who works hard to achieve his goals. He is very supportive and he loves to see people succeed. He is a great teacher, all of his students love him, and I can't wait to see those skills transfer over to parenting.
