

JENN & DANIEL

We live on the beautiful Sunshine Coast, with our dog Tommy, and our two cats, Ivy and Michi. Jenn is a family doctor, working in the Emergency Room and providing Mental Health services. Daniel is a published writer and an accounting assistant, and looks forward to becoming a stay-at-home dad.

We met in a small town in the mountains of Peru, where Daniel was working and Jenn was volunteering. We soon knew that we had a very special connection. Over 10 years later, we are now married, and live in our dream rural community on the Sunshine Coast.

Jenn loves to be active outdoors, going for runs and hikes, skiing and swimming, as well as baking, creating handicrafts, and practicing yoga and meditation. Daniel loves writing, reading, listening to music, and playing soccer. We value time spent together, going for hikes, swimming, playing games or watching a good movie, and travelling.

Jenn is blessed with natural instincts that nurture, care for, love and support all who enter her life. Offering a child the love, compassion, and foundation of a trusting, stable relationship and home environment they need to thrive is a privilege she very much hopes to have.

Daniel has long known that adoption was how he hoped to become a parent, offering a loving home to a child in need of one.

Daniel's Peruvian heritage is important to us, and he remains close with his family, who all live in Peru. We look forward to regular trips with our child to foster connection with Daniel's family, the Spanish language, and the beautiful culture and food!

Jenn's parents live nearby, and are a great support to us. They are highly supportive of our decision to adopt, and we look forward to many adventures together with them, including our annual summer beach trip to Savary Island!

We are honoured that you are considering providing us with the opportunity to live our dream of raising a child together. We look forward to working with you to find an ongoing relationship that is right for you, and for your child, honouring and respecting your decisions. We wish you the very best.
